

5th to 6th October 2009, Radisson SAS Hotel Brussels, Brussels, Belgium

August 21, 2009 - London - Hear the latest accounts of export control regulations, reforms and overviews from a range of nations and institutions at Defence Exports 2009. This exceptional 2 day conference features a presentation from Riccardo Manara, Deputy Head of UAMA, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Italy, as well as presentations from the Department of State (USA), Department of Commerce (USA), & MOD (Israel).

Returning for its 4th annual instalment, SMI's Defence Exports conference will take place in Brussels once again this coming October. Our most comprehensive Defence Exports conference yet will give you the opportunity to hear up-to-date accounts of export control regulations, reforms and overviews from a range of nations and institutions. Attend to hear your national perspective and meet the representatives that matter.

Interact fully with speakers and delegates in our interactive panel discussions and assess the latest export and compliance overviews from both sides of the Atlantic.

In today's challenging economic environment and given the subsequent reduction in resources, it is all too easy to lose focus on compliance.

Attend Defence Exports 2009 and maximise your future export capabilities.
